	6. What Your Board Needs to Know About Internal Controls to Improve Audits and Avoid DRS Trainer: Rocky Cabagnot, Attorney, Hull & Chandler P.A. Facilitator: Skyelah Green, Fiscal Support, SCACAP Monitor: Brandon Burris, Staff Accountant, SCACAP In 2020, Head Start amended the 'triggers' to force programs to enter the Designated Renewal System (DRS). One of the subtler but dangerous triggers is the new criterion that requires competition if a grantee has a total or two or more audit findings of material weakness or questioned costs during the grant term. Lack or poor internal controls is a typical material weakness found in a program audit. In this workshop, Board members will learn about how to improve internal controls because the ultimate responsibility for corporate governance rests with the Board and not employees.	Rm. 106
