much thought into developing their strategic plans, identifying their strategic objectives, and creating initiatives and timelines leading to greater success and impact. With strategic planning there always is some element of change especially as organizations look to continue their growth and relevance in a particular industry. However, few, if any, give much thought to how their organizations will prepare for change, manage change at the moment, and combat resistance to any changes that might occur as a result of strategic planning initiatives.

19. Working Together to Prevent Childhood Lead Poisoning

Trainer(s): M. L. Tanner, Program Manager, Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention, SC DHEC

South Carolina has several programs around the State that are working to prevent childhood lead poisoning. We can accomplish more if we are aware of what the different programs have to offer and work together to share each other's information. This session would provide an update on DHEC's Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program and some unusual lead sources that have been identified. It would also cover our partnership with DHEC's Bureau of Water on their WIIN grant. This grant offers lead testing for water in schools and childcare facilities. Two HUD grants would also be covered briefly.

Facilitator(s): Martina Mitchell, MPH, CCAP, Health Coordinator, SCACAP

20. PDG/SLDS What Executive Directors and Directors Need to Know

Trainer(s): Sheila Ann Cornwell, Business Analyst, SC Office of Revenue and Fiscal Affairs

Presentations and Discussions around the Preschool Development Grant (PDG) and Statewide Longitudinal Data Systems (SLDS) Grant. Understanding the distinctions between the MOUs, Discussing Freedom of Information Act requests, how data can be requested from RFA and their processes, how your participation in these grants will give you an ROI, other states' ECIDS and their progress (Mississippi and Utah), and discussion around the timeline for data to be received to RFA with built-in buffer for review of the data and quality checks.

Facilitator(s): Rebecca Clark, EHS-CCP Director, SCACAP

21. Issues for HS/EHS Grantees to Consider When Offering Bonuses to Support Recruitment and Retention

Trainer(s): Rocky Cabagnet, Attorney at Law, Hull & Chandler P.A. Recently, the Office of Head Start issued ACF-IM-HS-22-04 (June 21, 2022) 'Competitive Bonuses for the Head Start Workforce'. This IM was released in light of the workforce crisis (recruitment and retention) facing grantees. The IM encourages Hs/EHS grantees to offer competitive bonuses to new hires and existing staff to stave off the loss of staff, closure of classrooms, etc. That said, are grantees who are looking to offer incentive compensation following regulations such as the Head Start Act,
